FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Health District to Hold Informational Display about Lead in Local Libraries

The Central Connecticut Health District will be holding informational displays at local libraries from Monday, June 9, 2014 to Friday, June 13, 2014 about the importance of lead safety in the home and the workplace. These displays will include free information and materials about how to keep your family, pets and home safe from the dangers of lead poisoning.

According to the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC), both adults and young children are the most at risk for lead poisoning because of the harmful affects on the developing nerves and brain. However, the younger the child, the more damaging exposure can be.

Informational displays will be held at the following libraries:

- ✧ Berlin-Peck Memorial Library, 234 Kensington Road, Berlin, CT 06037
- ✧ Lucy Robbins Wells Library, 95 Cedar Street, Newington, CT 06111
- ✧ Cora J. Belden Library, 33 Church Street, Rocky Hill, CT 06067
- ✧ Wethersfield Library, 515 Silas Deane Highway, Wethersfield, CT 06109

For more information, please contact the Central Connecticut Health District, serving the towns of Berlin, Newington, Rocky Hill and Wethersfield by calling (860)721-2824 or visit us online at www.ccthd.org.
